My dear Mr. MacLeod.

Many thanks for your information in regard to rules for copyists. I have just come from the law-store of W. S.
Thurber, whom I am personally in reverence to the photographs you mention. Thurber is at mid-the latter for me to have the exclusive sale of his plates as all do near to him here, he is the only one I have spoken to as yet; and he promises to make you in the particular place. I teleoted Mr.
Thurber's place, 210 Wabash St, thinking it the prettiest store. As it now stands the matter is in Mr.

Thurber's hands - Would Mother come if it - please do not be afraid to call on me and I will gladly do any thing I can.

I will give you Catalogue during the early part of our ex. marked & turned down when our new casts are given & to show you what pirates we are and how indifferent we are for the saving of trouble by the Corcoran fallacy - I will give another on Saturday

Very truly yours, G. Galloway
